

What Impact Can You Have On This Election?

A Vote For -->	Biden	Trump	Other Listed Candidate	A Write-In Candidate	... Or Don't Vote
If you ...
Identify more fully with the Democrat party platform than you do with the Republican party platform ...	Will energize the extreme far left faction in the Democrat party and accelerate the current liberal trend and movement toward Socialism	Will quell the tide of movement toward Socialism and voice support for continuation of results so far under a Republican administration.	[See Note]	[See Note]	[See Note]
Identify more fully with the Republican party platform than you do with the Democrat party platform ...	Will energize the extreme far left faction in the Democrat party and accelerate the current liberal trend and movement toward Socialism	Will quell the tide of movement toward Socialism and voice support for continuation of results so far under a Republican administration.	[See Note]	[See Note]	[See Note]
Identify with any other party platform and want that party's candidate as your president ...	Will energize the extreme far left faction in the Democrat party and accelerate the current liberal trend and movement toward Socialism	Will quell the tide of movement toward Socialism and voice support for continuation of results so far under a Republican administration.	[See Note]	[See Note]	[See Note]
Note

You are essentially gambling with your vote. A vote for any candidate other than Biden or Trump [whether a listed candidate or a write-in candidate,] or a decision not to vote, is in effect a vote for either Biden or Trump, but you won't know which one you supported until after the election is over and results are tabulated and analyzed. These votes always end up strengthening the chances of winning of one candidate or the other.